United States District Judge

Re: United States v. Malvasio, et al., S1 23 Cr. 396 (JGLC)

Dear Judge Clarke:

I represent Christopher Polk in the above referenced matter. Mr. Polk resides in Georgia. The next conference in this matter is currently scheduled for April 8, 2025. I write to respectfully request that Mr. Polk be permitted to appear at the conference remotely. The government consents to this request, and his written consent to appear remotely is attached as Exhibit A.

Mr. Polk has been diagnosed with atrial fibrilization, which manifests as elevated and irregular heartbeat, as well as dizziness and lightheadedness. He has a doctor's appointment this afternoon to determine whether he is medically cleared for air travel. He has not yet personally appeared, and he understands that the Court intends to rule on co-defendant Marcus' motion to sever during the conference, which may affect the impending trial date. However, under these circumstances, I write to respectfully request that Mr. Polk be permitted to attend the April 8, 2025, conference remotely.

We appreciate the Court's time and attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Michael D. Bradley
Attorney for Christopher Polk
